MAGNET SCORES IN FAST TIME.

The good stables are fast coming to the Indiana tracks, on which the sport is improving every day. Dan Honig arrived last week, and was very much in evidence yesterday with four entries. Galen Brown is here with Libertine, and also has Marcel in charge, and T. P. Hayes with his string, including Rondo and other good ones, is on hand. Barney Schreiber too has sent on a second lot.

It was perfect weather yesterday, the track was fast and the attendance large. Only two favorites won, Magnet and Del Coronado. Fonclif, Bob Wagner and Terragnes were all at long prices.

Magnet signalized his return to Indiana by winning the seven furlongs race in a gallop, and breaking the State record by a second, covering the distance in 1:27½. Serena, ridden out by Dorsey, just beat May Galop for the place. Dr. Rice who was running well, broke down on the back stretch, and Freeman had to dismount and lead him in. His bad leg gave way, and it is doubtful if he will run again.

Nellie Smith was most fancied in the opening race, and there was a strong play on Caulfield. Terragnes won easily, Caulfield, off badly, getting place. Nellie Smith pulled up very lame.

The maiden two-year-old race produced a surprise, Fonclif unbacked, by the stable, except for the place, winning at 30 to 1.

In the first half of the mile selling, the talent would have nothing but Del Coronado, and Laura Cotta, and the judgment was right, as they finished first and second, with old Fakir a respectable third.

In the second half of the mile, Eloroy was the choice, while Unity was heavily backed. Doctor G made the running at a great pace, opening up a big gap on the back stretch. He tired at the finish and Bob Wagner, who had always been second, won by three-quarters of a length from Mamie G, who beat Doctor G by a neck. The time, 1:42, beat the State record by half a second.

There was a plunge on Miss Young in the last race, but she got in trouble on the back stretch. In a driving finish Ingomar beat Merry Monarch with Revenue close up third and Lollie Eastin at his throat latch fourth.

George Rose, the well-known bookmaker, is on his way from California, and will book at Forsyth next Saturday. William Beverly is also on the way.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Handspring is troubled with sore heels—a telling infirmity on a hard track.

No better everyday starting than that of Dick Dwyer can be possible. Dwyer's work is keen, intelligent and regular.

Jacob Ruppert's colt Leonard B, by Favor—Lady Scarboro, fell and paralyzed his hips at Gravesend last Thursday morning. He was shot and put out of his misery.

At Latonia June 20 (Derby Day) a choice lot of fifty yearlings bred in Kentucky are to be sold. They are by Hanover, Fonso, Hayden Edwards, Whistle Jacket, Pirate of Penzance and Onondaga.

Ed Corrigan's filly Won't Dance sprung a tendon while taking exercise Wednesday morning at Oakley. She will be put on the shelf for some time from this accident, which is usually a bad one.

Rathbone, by Young Prince—Lady Amanda, the sire of Jerildera Cardwell and Dongaro, died at Forestville, Cal., June 9. Joe Simpson bred him. As a two-year-old he beat C H Todd, the 1887 American Derby winner, a half mile, weight up in 49½.

Tom Griffin's Jasper who showed some quality in an Oakley race Thursday is a half brother to that fast mare, Lady Blackburn. He is a big lazy colt who does his best only under sharp persuasion and is likely to make a good race horse. He is by Inspector B—Secret and a Belle Meade product.

The North Western Breeders Association entries close to-day. The Association's week's meeting, which begins at Washington Park June 27, should be a glory in a harness racing way. Its cycle races and outdoor horse show are keen and popular attractions that will aid the sport in many ways.
